The Message - Reconciliation

There is something profoundly disturbing when a community turns in on its self and starts to tear itself apart. People take on characteristics that not normally demonstrated within their nature and maybe, do or say things that they would never dream of in any other circumstance. Civil wars are the worst and most destructive type of war where brothers fight brother, daughters there mother and sons fight there fathers.

Nocton had its own civil war last year over the dairy issue, it divided friends, families neighbours. It also divided people who prior to the issue had not even known each other. 2010 was in the famous words of our Queen as she struggled with her own terrible year in the early 1990's an " Annus horribilis"

But times move on and issues change or disappear. But what is left after the issue has gone? Well, firstly many new friendships, friendships that developed on committees, in planning groups or private discussions of the issues over a cup of tea. Secondly, People thrown together in adversity find new gifts, gifts they never had. They become campaigners, leaders, administrators, blue-skies thinkers...they have the opportunity to grow. And thirdly they begin to believe they can achieve and make things happen.

But what about opponents in the conflict, can they start to work together? In fact that is the key to coming out of the depth of civil conflict, if former opponents can hold out their hands to each other, then reconciliation is possible. The new found gifts can be harnessed and the post struggle community can move forward to a bright and new future.

This, I believe, is the essence of what has happened in Nocton over the past six months. Just look at all that has gone on in the village, the groups working together, the individuals who last year were adversaries, bringing idea's and projects to life. The CLAN (Community Led Action for Nocton) who are forming the Parish Plan. The Nocton Festival 2012 celebrating Nocton along side the Queen's Diamond Jubilee, The proliferation of multi-organisation events and functions. These are all post our 2010 conflict, and surely are all evidence of a living community, working as one for the benefit of all. In adversity we find the God given gifts that dwell deep within us. In Peace we can use them to the glory of Gods world.

When Jesus told the parable of the Good Samaritan he was talking of reconciliation. The Samaritans, a cast aside group needed to be brought back into the fold. The Jews regarded the Samaritans as unclean and impure. They were of Jewish ancestry but had been exiled into Samaria and their bloodlines 'contaminated'. However Jesus demonstrated to the Jews, that by holding on to ancient prejudices they were keeping a conflict going and refusing the benefits of peace. Reconciliation with each other is the way we can improve our own lives and communities, and open our selves up to reconciliation with God.

I'm glad to report, reconciliation is alive and well in Nocton and paying great dividends

I hope you all had an enjoyable and peaceful summer

Chris

Church Harvest Supper

Sixty people enjoyed getting together in the Village Hall for the Nocton Church Harvest Supper on Saturday 3rd September. Lincolnshire stuffed chine, haslet, ham and pork pies were supplied by Garrill's Butchers of Bardney, and tomatoes, plums, apples and blackberries from village gardens were used in delicious salads, quiches, pies and crumbles. Our thanks go to all who contributed to this event, which raised £413 for Nocton Church Funds.

Before the raffle was drawn, Sue Morris made a presentation to Churchwarden Nicholas Bennett of a cheque from Lincolnshire Co-op for £1000 for a new guidebook for Nocton Church. The crystal trophy celebrating the awards marking the 150th birthday of the Lincolnshire Co-op was circulated for all to admire.

Church Roof Update

The roofing works are well underway as are some structural repairs to the chancel pinnacles.

We have also decided to go ahead and install lighting to the chancel ceiling while the scaffolding is up. Along with restoration of the stencilling to the East Chancel wall. To this end paint conservator Nigel Leaney is uncovering parts of the 1875 scheme (see below)

Nocton Festival 2012

As you read this, there will be around 100 days left of 2011!

But, already Nocton is preparing well for the festive year of 2012!

Sunday 4th September 2011 saw colourful displays in the Village Hall, of the many events taking place next year, Nocton Festival 2012, to celebrate the Queen's Diamond Jubilee in and around the village. They will all be advertised under the umbrella of "Nocton Festival 2012"

Of course the main event will be the 'Royal' Garden Party on The Green, on Monday 4th June 2012, followed by a 1950s Dance in the evening. However until then (and indeed after the Party too) there are a myriad of things to get involved in..

Watch out for Nocton Festival updates around the village - we have permission to display banners at the entrances to the village, which will change on a regular basis to inform you of everything that is going on.

There will be regular reports here in the Parish Magazine, and for those of you who use the internet, typing "Nocton Festival 2012" into your facebook search bar, will lead you to our page where you can 'like' and subsequently receive all updates direct to your wall! It couldn't be easier to find out what's going on!

Afternoon Tea at the Old Vicarage.

A big thank you from Nocton PCC to Matt and Lynn Corrigan, who during the summer held fundraising afternoon teas in their gardens at the Old Vicarage.

What better way to spend a Sunday afternoon in the summer. The event raised £70 for church restoration funds. Thankyou to Matt & Lynn and everyone who helped out.

Parish Council Report – Tuesday September 6th 2011

Police Report. There had been three crimes reported since the last meeting. Two youths speeding on their bikes at Nocton Park; a theft from a car parked outside the Village Hall during the early hours of the morning and a drain cover stolen from Nocton Rise. The 20 or so computer screens that had recently been fly-tipped in Nocton Hall Woods have now been collected by NKDC who are trying to ascertain where they came from.

Public Questions When was the Options Appraisal from Nocton Hall going to be ready? Karen Bradford from NKDC will be asked to make a full report on this at the October meeting. A local resident said that he will be asking NKDC for all past information concerning Nocton Hall under the Freedom of Information Act. District Cllr Kendrick said that he would feedback to NKDC the Parish Council's concerns regarding the lack of information being provided to local cllrs and the community about the progress being made to address all of the problems associated with the Hall.

The general state of the village and the Parish Cllrs 'walk around'. Since the planned "walkabout" could not be completed because of heavy rain (!) the Vice-chair had carried out his own survey with another resident and made a provisional list of various shortcomings to be addressed. This will be made available publically once other cllrs had been able to add their own comments. In the meantime, residents are asked to send in their own observations to the Parish Clerk on what they feel could be done to improve the overall appearance of the village.

Nocton School offered to give a brief report on what is happening at the school at the start of the monthly Parish Council Meetings. This offer was welcomed by all the Councillors.

Clarification on the relationship between Parish Council, Village Hall Committee and Social Club was sought. Councillor Askew will assist with this.

County Councillor Marianne Overton: Lincolnshire had been successful in obtaining funding for improving Broadband especially in rural areas. She is also supporting the PC's proposals for "interactive" speed limit warning signs at the three main entrance points to the village and for the creation of a footpath along Wellhead Lane from its junction with the B1188.

Street Lighting: Cllrs decided to replace the bulbs in the 26 street lamps along Main Street, Potterhanworth Road and Wellhead Lane with energy saving bulbs and that 50% of the lights would go off for a few hours after midnight. At the request of Cllrs Rumbelow and Askew, it was agreed that the lights by the Wellhead Lane Bungalows would remain on all night. Overall, this will result in a saving of more than 70% of the existing energy bill and will help to reduce carbon emissions.

CLAN and Nocton Festival 2012: Councillor Williams reported briefly on the very successful and well attended launch of these initiatives on Sunday 4 September.

Parish Council Budget: The Vice-Chair had prepared an easy to read draft income and expenditure budget for the Parish Council making it simpler for cllrs to track future expenditure and to deal with the demands on its hard-pressed resources. This will be discussed at the next meeting.

The "Coronation Seat": This seat (formerly by the bus stop in Main Street) has now been fully refurbished by a local resident and will be reinstated on the Village Green.

Christmas Tree: A tree is to be purchased and sited at the front of the Village Hall.

Dyke and Grating, Wellhead Lane: Efforts are to be made to ensure that the dyke and grating outside the Wellhead Lane Bungalows are cleaned out by the relevant authority. If this does not happen, then the Community Pay-back Scheme will be asked to carry out the work.

Communication: Doreen Green, our Parish Clerk, now has a dedicated email address solely for Parish Council business. Any resident wishing to raise a matter with the Parish Council are invited to telephone her on 01526 322323 or email at noctonparishcouncil@hotmail.co.uk

Nocton WI News

On Monday, 12th September, Mr Ian Ross visited the WI to talk about the organisation Tools with a Mission (TWAM). He showed a short film and spoke about the work of his organisation and It was a very interesting and informative evening. TWAM collects tools that are no longer needed, repairs them if necessary, and dispatches them to the developing world to enable people to have the means of making a living for themselves and their community. His message was to say that before you throw anything out, get in touch with him as it was possible that TWAM would be able to use it. e.g. battery charges, cycle tools, electrician/engineers tools, haberdashery items, in fact anything except lawn mowers! If you are interested either contact Ian on 01469 530526 or go to www.twam.co.uk.

Scruffs - Fun Dog Show – 31 July 11

At Nocton Social Club we are always looking for new community events to hold. It was agreed that a Scruffs Show would be something for everyone, regardless of whether they owned a dog or not!

It was a pleasant surprise to have 18 dogs and their owners arrive to be put through their paces and judged by Emily Webster & Dave Rumbelow. Breeds of all shapes and sizes took part in the classes of waggiest tail, best trick, best dressed, scruffiest and best of show. Despite a bit of waiting around during classes, whilst their owners partook of the excellent BBQ and beer, the dogs were all well behaved and seemed to enjoy the company.

The results were as follows:

Class	Name	Breed	Owner
Best of Show	Buster	Great Dane	Chris Green
Waggiest Tail	Coco	Cocker Spaniel	Suzanne (1 st)
	Harvey	Cocker Spaniel	Sharon (2 nd)
Best Trick	Leo	Golden Retriever	Lisa (1 st)
	Woolfie	Keeshond	Harriet (2 nd)
Scruffiest	Harvey	Jackadoodle	Karen (1 st)
	Monty	Border Collie	Simon (2 nd)
Best Dressed	Harvey	Cocker Spaniel	Sharon (1 st)
	Peggy Sue	Scottish Terrier	Natalie (2 nd)

Rosettes and medals were the order of the day, with the overall winner, Buster, winning a photography package donated by 'PetsPrints' who very kindly sponsored the event. A selection of fabulous pictures of the dogs can be seen at:

www.petsprints.com.

We would like to thank all those who came along to participate or watch, especially Liz of 'Petsprints' for the stunning photography, and Dave & Emily for their judging. We hope to have a similar event next year – look out for info in this magazine!

Cricket Club Fete and Match Update

Sunday 7th August saw the Nocton Cricket Club fete. The day began under blues skies with preparations for the afternoon's events, setting up the ground for the day ahead.

When it came to the events, which included skittles, wellie wargin', egg 'n spoon and sack race, amongst others, the largest number of entrants were for the adult slow-bike race. All were met with high enthusiasm and friendly levels of competitiveness by the local participants. Once everyone had worn themselves out, they all then settled down for tea under the canopies as the grey skies closed in. After tea came the presentations, where the top three in each event were awarded a certificate for their achievements, while there were also various prizes for the days' winners.

The second part of the day saw the 20/20 cricket match, between the Chairman's XI and the President's XI, made up of players from the club, and residents of the village. Despite an early interruption due to a heavy rain shower, the players did manage to get back out onto the field and complete a close game, which was eventually won by the Chairman's XI, in near darkness.

In all, it was a very enjoyable and successful day for Nocton Cricket Club, raising £400 for club funds. We look forward to doing the same again next year!

Turning to the more serious matches in the league, after a disappointing run of eight games without a win, success came at last, away at Hykeham, with contributions throughout the team (Matthew Stephens 47, Dylan Garfoot 44, John Franklin 24, and David Glew 5-16). So, is it onwards and upwards for the team in their last four games? They will be playing at home on 11th and 25th September.

Harvest Festival and 2nd Annual Village Produce Show

Sunday 4th Sept saw the amalgamation of three events at the village hall. The ever popular Harvest Festival Church Service began the proceedings, followed by the launch of the CLAN (Community Led Action for Nocton) presentation. At the same time judging of the entries for the 2nd Annual Produce Show had been going on, all of these excellent entries being put on display for everyone to admire.

This years Harvest Festival took place in the village hall owing to the roof repairs on the church. However we still had a decorated altar and Dominic Grant brought along his barrow he has provided for many years. The Service was led by Sister Liz from the community of St Francis at Metheringham and Chris Hewitt preached the sermon. Unfortunately on the day Jill our organist was ill, but the singing was better than ever.

Although the weather on the day proved to be slightly damp there was no dampening of spirits of the participants. There were an amazing 103 entries for the produce show which included perfectly formed fruit and vegetables, delectable cakes, artistic flower displays and tasty preserves.

Multi-tasking - Preacher to Auctioneer in 10 Minutes

Independent judges were employed for an impartial decision on each category. This years cake and flower judge was Sister Liz from the community of St Francis at Metheringham. Once judging of all the produce had taken place, and the winners had been applauded for their efforts, auctioning began. Over about an hour Chris Hewitt acting as auctioneer, encouraged good natured but competitive bidding. The most spectacular bid was £21 for Glen Studds home grown pineapple plant, with ripe pineapple on top (grown from the top off a 'Lidl' pineapple!!) Over £130 was raised, which Nocton Social Club subsequently donated to the Church Roof repair fund.

This was an excellent day, with several diverse areas of interest combining their efforts which proved to be a winning combination. Thanks to everyone who helped in the BBQ, preparation, entered produce, put in a bid or just turned up! We hope that next year's produce show, on Sun 3 Sep 2012, will prove even more popular.

Nocton Park Allotments Association Summer BBQ

On 20th Aug the Allotment Association held a summer open day and BBQ down at their recently cultivated allotment patch. It is amazing to see what some of the keen growers have achieved there in 12 short months. Some plots looking like they have been worked for years, not just rough ground in 2010.

The weather looked dubious but thankfully held off and the sun which eventually came out set the scene for a fine afternoon of conversation, food (excellent carrot cake) and admiration at the achievements of these fine gardeners.

There are still allotments available for villagers who have an interest in growing their own produce. If you are interested contact the Allotment Association via Neil Faulkner. (07799 296161)

Wine Tasting Event – 27 Aug 11

Nocton Social Club pulled out all stop(pers)! for this event! A total of 56 people enjoyed the evening with Damon Blackband, our very own wine connoisseur. Damon has extensive knowledge on wines and led us all through the various merits of 5 white and 5 red wines. Coupled with some exquisite food, prepared by Caz Cunningham and her select team of helpers, the evening was amazing. It was the ideal venue to learn more about the wines, but equally as importantly it gave us all an opportunity to meet new faces, both from the village and beyond. This brilliant evening ended with an exclusive raffle, which may have taken longer than usual to draw as, after 10 tastings, some of us were having some difficulty focusing on the numbers!

Damon taking us through grapes, history and flavours of his 10 wines.

Julie Partridge won the magnum of Tatinger

A proportion of the proceeds raised will be donated to the Nocton Festival 2012 who will be promoting various events throughout the Jubilee year.

NSC would like to give a huge thank you to Damon for his time and hope that he can be persuaded to host a similar event next year – watch this space!

Teddy's Travels

On Thursday 8th Sept I set off with Simon Vicary (Store Manager Tesco Wragby Road, and Nocton resident) my boss, and Teddy to complete a sponsored motorcycle ride in aid of our Tesco charity of the year, Alzheimer's. The challenge was to visit all 18 Tesco stores run by our Stores Director in one day. The stores ranged from Scarborough in the north to Boston in the south, Maltby in the west and Skegness in the east. Autoroute told us it would be nearly eight hours constant riding then allowing Teddy to be photographed at each store. The time to complete our challenge would be over 12 hours.

L- Simon Vicary, R- Glen Studd, Centre - Teddy!

After a careful 10 minute planning session in the pub we decided to start in the north and work our way south finishing at our home store in Lincoln. We travelled to Filey the evening before to enable us to get an early start the following day. So at 0630 hrs we arrived at the Filey store (before it opened at 0700). Photo taken we then moved on to Scarborough, Bridlington, Driffield and the rest of the stores north of the river. All was going well until the heavens decided to ruin our day by opening up on us between Beverley and Market Weighton which meant we spent the next 3 hours in rain suits before reaching Gainsborough where the sun shone. We then covered the stores in Lincolnshire running around the coast from Barton upon Humber to Boston fitting in Horncastle on the way, then on to Sleaford, finally finishing with the 2 Lincoln stores. Total time 11 ½ hours, total mileage in excess of 300 (with the winner of the staff 'guess the mileage raffle' getting Teddy as the prize) and anticipated sponsorship raised approx £500. Many thanks to the people who sponsored us around the village, particularly those from Nocton Social Club.
